On Oct. 29, Cajuns for Bayou Teche raised $1,600 in its efforts to buy a motor for its boat and other equipment the group needs to clear Bridge, offered food, music and good times – all for a good cause.

Next up, a cleanup is scheduled for Bayou Tech on Nov. 15 from noon-4 p.m. Volunteers will meet at the Breaux Bridge boat launch at to come out.

The efforts to cleanup Bayou Teche and to protect the area's waters are an example of how local communities can work together to pr Kiwanis Club of Breaux Bridge, Keep St. Martin Beautiful and Acadiana Resource Conservation and Development have partnered with Landry Parish Sheriff's Office to work on the bayou with Blake Couvillion, Director of Cajuns for Bayou Teche, and other volunteers.

According to Couvillion, more than six tons of metal, tires, bicycles and refrigerators were pulled from the bayou last year.
